62nd Season 2010-2011

From Door to Door

Comedy written by James Sherman

Saturdays, Oct. 16, 23 @ 8 p.m.; Sundays, Oct. 17, 24 @ 2:30 p.m.; Thursday, Oct. 21 @ 7:30 p.m.

The season will open with a heartwarming, bittersweet tale about three generations of American women. From Door to Door tells the tale of Mary Goodman, a woman of the "greatest generation," who is mourning the loss of her husband. Her daughter, Deborah, is encouraging her to move on with a new independence. In a series of scenes between them and Mary's mother, Bessie, Mary reflects on her life as a daughter, wife and mother, realizing that each stand as links in a chain made of faith, love, and understanding.

Captain Noah

Children's musical written by Hindi Brooks, with music and lyrics by Charles Feldman

Saturdays, Dec. 4, 11 @ 7:30 p.m.; Sundays, Dec. 5, 12 @ 2:30 p.m.; Thursday, Dec. 9 @ 7:30 p.m.

This children's Hanukkah production is the biblical story of the Ark as told from the animals' point of view, with a bit of a comical twist in this play. According to Leon the Lion, president of B.E.A.S.T., it was the animals who received word from above about the impending flood. But the animals needed someone to build, navigate and provide food and other necessities for the 40-day cruise. They chose Noah and his family.

Curtains

Musical written by Rupert Holmes

With music by John Kander and lyrics by Fred Ebb

Saturdays, March 12, 19 @ 8 p.m.; Sundays, March 13, 20 @ 2:30 p.m.; Thursday, March 17 @ 7:30 p.m.

Curtains, based on the original book and concept by Peter Stone, is a send-up of backstage murder mystery plots. Set in 1959 Boston, the play follows the fallout when an untalented star is murdered during her opening night curtain call. Can a police detective who moonlights as a musical theater fan save the show, solve the case, and maybe even find love before the show reopens, without getting himself killed?

The Action Against Sol Schumann

Drama written by Jeffrey Sweet

Saturdays, May 14, 21 @ 8 p.m.; Sundays, May 15, 22 @ 2:30 p.m.; Thursday, May 19 @ 7:30 p.m.

Sol Schumann, a devout American Jew and beloved father of two grown sons, is accused of unspeakable crimes he allegedly committed many years earlier. His sons, who in the course of tracking through the maze of legal, moral and personal issues on the sins of their father, also must come to terms with their relationships with him.

Season tickets and group tickets may be purchased via the Gallery Players box office at (614) 231-2731. All productions will take place in the JCC's Roth-Resler Theater, 1125 College Ave., Columbus, OH 43209.

What the Critics Said About Last Season:

"Gallery Players stages The Immigrant well, resulting in a sentimental trip with an ending that dares the viewer not to shed a few tears."

The Other Paper

"Gallery Players' deft production of Company...creates a work that is as visually arresting as it is musically intriguing and emotionally complex."

The Columbus Dispatch

"Gallery Players' Capture the Moon is a seasonal treat as savory as it is sweet."

The Columbus Dispatch

"Even those already familiar with the play will find much to savor in Gallery Players' Talley's Folly, which moves lightly into the depths of human connection."
